DEADLINE ► 9 a.m., Friday, March 20, 2015

CAREFULLY READ ALL REQUIREMENTS BEFORE ENTERING

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENT

Any completed, occupied residential bath, located in the greater Atlanta area. The project may not have been published in Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles or any other publication prior to the contest. Each project may be entered only once.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENT

Each submission must include a completed entry form and the following listed items. Please keep copies of all materials; entries become the property of AH&L upon submission.

► NO MORE than an 80 word write-up on your bath and its distinctive features.

► NO MORE than five digital images at 72 pixels per inch sent directly to cruhlin@atlantahomesmag.com via Dropbox with the title "2015 Bath of the Year Contest Submission." Professional photography of the completed design is preferred, but not required. Email cruhlin@atlantahomesmag.com with questions.

► Submit simple, easy-to-read floor plans with room dimensions for each entry. "Before" floor plans are required for renovated baths. Fixtures and adjoining rooms must be identified. Size category is based on the "after" floor plan.

► Complete anonymity is required on all presentation materials. Please omit names of all entrants, clients or participating parties on actual pictures and floor plans.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Winners will be selected on the basis of aesthetic and functional excellence, originality, appropriateness and quality. One will be chosen as the grand-prize "Bath of the Year" winner.

PUBLICATION OF WINNING ENTRIES

Award-winning projects must be available to photograph from April–May for publication in the July 2015 issue of Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles. Projects may not be published in another publication for six months after that. Homeowner may request anonymity but must agree to make residence available during business hours for additional photography.
