

Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles

2014 BATH OF THE YEAR CONTEST

Carefully read all requirements before entering

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENT

Any completed, occupied residential bath, located in the greater Atlanta area. The project may not have been published in Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles or any other publication prior to the contest. Each project may be entered only once.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENT

Each submission must include a separate, completed entry form, and the following listed items. Please make copies of all materials; entries become the property of Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles.

>> Send up to five digital images on a CD or USB flash drive. Slides and prints will NOT be accepted. You may include additional "before" shots, but these are not necessary. Professional photography of the completed design is preferred, but not required.

>> NO MORE than 80 word write-up in a Word document on your bath and its distinctive features. Please place on CD or USB.

>> Submit simple, easy-to-read floor plans with room dimensions on letter-size (8.5x11) paper for each entry. "Before" floor plans are required for renovated kitchens. Fixtures and adjoining rooms must be identified.

>> Please omit names of all entrants, clients or participating parties on actual pictures. Complete anonymity is required.

>> One award is presented per winning entry.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Winners will be selected on the basis of aesthetic and functional excellence, originality, appropriateness and quality. One will be chosen as "Bath of the Year, Grand Prize."

PUBLICATION OF WINNING ENTRIES

Award-winning projects must be available to photograph in April 2014 for publication in the July 2014 issue of Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles. Projects may not be published in another publication for six months after that. Homeowner may request anonymity but must agree to make residence available during business hours for additional photography.
