1117 Perimeter Center West, Suite N118, 30338

DEADLINE ▶ 9 a.m., Monday, September 15, 2014

CAREFULLY READ ALL REQUIREMENTS BEFORE ENTERING

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENT

Any completed, occupied residential kitchen, located in the greater Atlanta area. The project may not have been published in Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles or any other publication prior to the contest. Each project may be entered only once.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENT

Each submission must include a completed entry form and the following listed items. Please make copies of all materials; entries become the property of AH&L and will not be returned.
▶ NO MORE than 80 word write-up on your kitchen and its distinctive features.

▶ NO MORE than five digital images sent directly to cruhlin@nci.com via WeTransfer. Slides and prints will not be accepted. You may include additional "before" shots, but these are not necessary. Professional photography of the completed design is preferred, but not required.

▶ Submit simple, easy-to-read floor plans with room dimensions on letter-size (8.5x11) documents for each entry. "Before" floor plans are required for renovated kitchens. Fixtures and adjoining rooms must be identified. Size category is based on the "after" floor plan.

▶ Complete anonymity is required on all presentation materials. Please omit names of all entrants, clients or participating parties on actual pictures and floor plans.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Winners will be selected on the basis of aesthetic and functional excellence, originality, appropriateness and quality. One will be chosen as "Kitchen of the Year."

PUBLICATION OF WINNING ENTRIES

Award-winning projects must be available to photograph in October 2014 for publication in the January 2015 issue of Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles. Projects may not be published in another publication for six months after that. Homeowner may request anonymity but must agree to make residence available during business hours for additional photography.
